RE: Rouzer Group – New Utility Manufacturer Announcement

Rouzer Group is proud to now represent Youngstown Glove Company, an iconic brand widely accepted across the national utility market, with an exceptional reputation for producing high-quality gloves. This partnership opens doors for deeper relationships with our customer base and reinforces our commitment to offering top-tier products.

Youngstown Glove Company is a pioneering force in hand protection for the utility, industrial, and construction industries. Established in 2002, Youngstown has consistently set new standards in glove performance and durability, earning widespread acclaim for its innovative designs and commitment to quality.

Youngstown's dedication to innovation is evident in its groundbreaking designs, such as the Arc Rated Series, which combines 3D glove patterns with premium leather for unmatched comfort, longevity, and dexterity. With a steadfast commitment to quality and continuous improvement, each Youngstown glove delivers superior performance and protection.
